

We are here to listen and help with any needs or concerns you may have related to you or your child's health, education, or well-being.

VERMONT FAMILY NETWORK CAN:

- Provide information and support about your child's special needs
- Help you understand the education system and your child's education plan
- Work with you to identify, gain access to, and advocate for community resources
- Provide early intervention services for your young child and family
- Help you become involved in your child's education and communicate with teachers and principals
- Advise you about steps your family can take to advocate for your child
- Link you to other parents in your area
- Work with you to advocate for systems change
- Provide information about health care services and access to health insurance

VERMONT FAMILY NETWORK PROMOTES BETTER HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELL-BEING FOR ALL CHILDREN AND FAMILIES, WITH A FOCUS ON CHILDREN AND YOUNG ADULTS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS.

VERMONT FAMILY NETWORK provides a wide range of programs and services for parents and professionals to build lasting relationships that support the needs of children and families across the state. To learn more about how we can help you, visit www.VermontFamilyNetwork.org for more comprehensive information about:

- Developmental Disability Resources, including Autism
- Assistive Technology for your child
- Early Childhood Development
- Health Care
- Mental Health
- Parent Involvement in School
- Special Education

If you do not speak English and need assistance, call and tell us your language and phone number. We will call you right back with an interpreter on the line.

