

Vermont Family Network Receives Maximus Foundation Grant as Part of 2024 Annual Giving

Maximus Foundation Awards Over $2 Million to 209 Nonprofits Nationwide for Community Development, Youth Development, and Healthcare Services

Williston, Vermont – June 15th, 2024 – Maximus, a leading employer and provider of government services worldwide, announced that the Maximus Foundation awarded Vermont Family Network a $10,000 grant as part of its annual giving to 209 nonprofit organizations across the United States this year.

In 2024, the Maximus Foundation provided $10,000 grants to each awardee, with focus areas including homelessness prevention, job training programs, youth development, and education programs. The number of grantees represents a 9% increase over the number of 2023 grant recipients.

"On behalf of the Maximus Foundation, I congratulate Vermont Family Network on becoming a 2024 Maximus Foundation grantee," said Arvenita Washington Cherry, Maximus Foundation President. "Vermont Family Network is part of an inspiring group of nonprofits that are truly driving change by engaging, encouraging, and supporting all the members of its communities. Their work reminds us that, together, we can empower individuals and families in every community."

The Maximus Foundation, founded by the company's board of directors in 2000, has awarded more than 3,000 grants totaling more than $15 million throughout its history. It is committed to supporting organizations and programs that promote self-sufficiency through improved health, child, family, and community development. The nonprofits receiving grants in 2024 from the Maximus Foundation provide a wide range of critical services, programs, and training.

About Vermont Family Network

The mission of Vermont Family Network is to empower and support all Vermont children, youth, and families, especially those with disabilities or special health needs. We do this by giving a strong start, lifting family voices, and advancing inclusive communities. Our vision is that all Vermont children and youth reach their full potential. The values which guide our work are: family-centered, respect, collaboration, making a difference, and accessibility. As we grow, Vermont Family Network continues to advance inclusion among the greater community, supporting children and families where they live and go to school. There is no doubt that their greater visions have been realized. Vermont Family Network will continue our dedicated efforts to meet the needs of families all over the state.
