

CALLING ALL CREATORS!

Help make a short animated film about the resources available to support youth with disabilities on their journey to becoming adults

Who:

Youth between the ages of 16-22 who identify as having a disability

What:

Do you have a story to tell? Are you passionate about animation and the power of creativity to make positive change? Share your ideas for content and feedback on design.

When:

Participate in two virtual sessions, two hours each, between January and February
(Schedule to be determined based on participant availability)

Why Get Involved:

Meet other youth with disabilities, learn new skills, and use your experience to help break down barriers and spread awareness about resources for disabled youth. Receive a stipend of $50 per session.

How to Get Involved:

Send an email by January 10 to Krista Siringo at Vermont Family Network:
